Consumer Spotlight

Rob began working at CWTC in May 2005, just one week after high school graduation. He works four days a week and the structure and the opportunity to earn his own money is a blessing to him. Rob's hobbies include playing video games, adding to his video game and book collections and listening to music. In his free time, Rob likes to spend time with family (people and dogs) and friends and go to the library. Like anyone, he has goals and they include being respectful and compassionate and having his own video-making business.

A Message From Patti

Dear friends,

Next month we will be hosting our annual dinner. This is an event where we recognize our business partnerships in the community and the accomplishments of our consumers. It is such an honor to be able to share the special achievements of our consumers and thank the business community for their support.

Since we are a local human service organization, we depend so much on the great community where we live and work. We have such amazing local leaders, business partners, family members and friends that continue to acknowledge the value of CWTC to the community.

Please consider joining us for this wonderful evening of celebration, collaboration and appreciation. Thank you for supporting the great individuals at CWTC.

Best Regards,

Patti Gratton
Executive Director

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR / CONDUCTOR
DAVID COMMANDAY

CWTC is proud to announce that we have been named a Community Partner with the Heartland Festival Orchestra as they continue their tradition of partnering with deserving local nonprofit organizations this season. In connection with each concert, the Heartland Festival Orchestra makes a monetary contribution to the community partner, shares the onstage spotlight before each concert with the partner's spokesperson, and offers the partner an opportunity and venue to showcase its programs for concert-goers.

CWTC Night is September 10, 2016 at Five Points in Washington. Here are the details:

Concert Program: Beethoven's Eighth Wonder
Featuring Rachel Barton Pine, Violin

Dramatic works of joyous spirit and revolutionary form by Beethoven, including his Violin Concerto interpreted by Rachel Barton Pine, Illinois native and international star.

Tickets are on sale now here. For more information, call (309) 339-3943. We would love it if you could join us!

CWTC CASH RAFFLE

Our annual CWTC Pathway Awards Dinner and Auction is our largest fundraiser and it helps support programs and services for adults with disabilities. We have begun selling tickets for our CASH Raffle with three cash prizes; $1,000, $300 and $200. Tickets are just $5.00 each. The winners will be drawn the night of the dinner and you need not be present to win! Ask any staff member for tickets or visit CWTC at 3215 N. University Street in Peoria.
